Vanessa is a young woman who has always been different. She has a kind heart and a gentle touch, and she has always been able to sense the pain and suffering of others. One day, she discovers that she has the ability to heal people with her hands. At first, she is afraid of her gift, but she soon realizes that it is a gift that she can use to help others.

Vanessa starts the Every Tuesday Club as a way to bring together people who are all in need of a miracle. The club meets every Tuesday at Vanessa's house, and the members share their stories, their hopes, and their dreams. Vanessa uses her healing powers to help the members of the club, and she also teaches them how to heal themselves.

The Every Tuesday Club is a place where miracles happen. The members of the club are all different, but they are all united by their shared experiences. They have all been through pain and suffering, but they have also found hope and healing. The Every Tuesday Club is a place where anything is possible, and where everyone is welcome.
