

Walking the Seasons of the Church: A Pilgrimage through the Liturgical Year

The liturgical year is the annual cycle of feasts, fasts, and celebrations that mark the rhythm of Christian life. It is a journey through the life of Christ, from his birth to his death and resurrection, and it invites us to participate in the ongoing story of salvation.

Walking the Seasons of the Church is a guide to this journey. The book explores the history, theology, and spirituality of each season, and offers practical ways to participate in the liturgical year more fully. Written by a priest who has spent years leading retreats and workshops on the liturgical year, Walking the Seasons of the Church is a valuable resource for anyone who wants to deepen their understanding and experience of the Christian faith.

The Seasons of the Liturgical Year

The liturgical year is divided into six seasons:

- Advent (four weeks before Christmas): A time of waiting and preparation for the birth of Christ.
- Christmas (December 25 - January 5): A celebration of the birth of Christ.
- Epiphany (January 6 - February 2): A time to celebrate the manifestation of Christ to the world.
- Lent (40 days before Easter): A time of fasting, prayer, and penance.
- Easter (Sunday after Lent): A celebration of the resurrection of Christ.
- Pentecost (50 days after Easter): A celebration of the coming of the Holy Spirit.

Each season has its own unique character and focus. Advent is a time of waiting and preparation, while Christmas is a time of joy and celebration. Lent is a time of fasting and penance, while Easter is a time of new life and hope. Pentecost is a time to celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit and the birth of the Church.

Walking the Seasons of the Church

Walking the Seasons of the Church offers a variety of ways to participate in the liturgical year more fully. The book includes:

- A description of each season of the liturgical year, including its history, theology, and spirituality
